PENNINE DENTAL

Cookie Policy for Pennine Dental

Website cookie notice and user information

Last updated: 1 July 2026

About this Cookie Policy

This Cookie Policy explains how Pennine Dental uses cookies and similar technologies on its website. It explains what cookies are, why they are used, what types of cookies may be placed on your device, and how you can manage your cookie preferences.

Cookies that are strictly necessary for the website to work may be used without consent. Where cookies are not strictly necessary, such as analytics, marketing, or some functional cookies, Pennine Dental will ask for your consent before using them.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your computer, tablet, mobile phone, or other device when you visit a website. They help the website recognise your device, remember choices you make, improve security, and understand how visitors use the site.

How Pennine Dental uses cookies

Pennine Dental may use cookies to keep the website secure, make pages load and function properly, remember your preferences, measure website performance, and improve the visitor experience. Some cookies may be set directly by Pennine Dental, while others may be set by third-party services used on the website.

Types of cookies we may use

Cookie type	Purpose	Consent required?
Strictly necessary cookies	Enable core website functions, such as security, page navigation, and access to essential features.	No
Functional cookies	Remember choices you make, such as display preferences or form settings, to provide a more personalised experience.	Yes, unless essential
Analytics or statistics cookies	Help understand how visitors use the website, which pages are visited, and how the site can be improved.	Yes

Marketing cookies	May be used to measure campaigns or show relevant advertising, including through third-party services.	Yes

Your cookie choices

When you first visit the website, you may be shown a cookie banner or preference panel. You can choose whether to accept or reject non-essential cookies. You can also change your preferences later through the website's cookie settings, where available.

You can also control cookies through your browser settings. Most browsers allow you to block cookies, delete existing cookies, or receive a warning before cookies are stored. Blocking some cookies may affect how the website works.

Third-party cookies

Some cookies may be placed by third-party providers, such as website analytics, embedded content, appointment tools, maps, videos, social media features, or advertising services. These providers may collect information about your use of the website in line with their own privacy and cookie policies.

Updates to this policy

Pennine Dental may update this Cookie Policy from time to time to reflect changes to the website, the cookies used, or legal requirements. The latest version should be made available on the website.

Contact

If you have questions about this Cookie Policy or how cookies are used on the website, please contact Pennine Dental using the contact details provided on the website.